In addition to his physical health, his mental health issues have flared up considerably in recent days--anger, depression, manipulation, etc.

I kept it broad in my email to the lawyer so that the law firm can accommodate remote access. I don't have time to take Dad anywhere he commands.

I did share I need to go to LA in early March as a potential time to take him as needed. This calmed him down. But it looks like no need at this point.

What new serious health problem did he develop? Or is this an old, serious health problem?

FYI, problem solved on the sense of urgency for Dad to go to S. CA.

Hi Hanh,

I am sorry to hear that your father is experiencing serious health issues. I am going to see if we can have his medical evaluation via zoom. Thank you so much for your cooperation in this matter. Also, we can have a meeting on 2/20 via zoom.

Best Regards,

Karina Padua

Dear Karina,

I am Ho Van Cao's daughter. I am writing on behalf of my father who has been facing some serious health issues. He is staying with me in the Bay Area to get better and will have difficulty making it to LA on 2/20 for the 1:1 appointment with you. I understand also that you have an examination scheduled with him on 2/23. Can you provide more details? Is it possible for this to occur in the Bay Area?

Can we do the 2/20 meeting by zoom? I can help him set this up.

If absolutely needed, I have a business trip to LA the week of March 6 and can bring my father.

Attached is a legal document that designates me and my brothers with power of attorney.
