You now have more time to let us know about certain check errors on your account

In June we increased the timeframe for when you can make a claim for checks drawn on your account that have either been altered or that you did not authorize. You now have up to 60 days from when we make a statement available to make a claim on these items in order to be considered for reimbursement.

We've updated the Safeguarding Your Information section in our Deposit Account Agreement to reflect this change as well as provide additional information about our check claims process.

As a reminder, we offer tools to help you keep an eye on your account, including the Chase Mobile® app¹ and Chase OnlineSM Banking. You can find more useful tips for helping protect you and your money at chase.com/FraudAwareness.

If you'd like a copy of the Deposit Account Agreement, please visit chase.com/disclosures or call us at the number on this statement. We also accept operator relay calls.

¹Chase Mobile® app is available for select mobile devices. Message and data rates may apply.

Please review our overdraft service options at the end of this statement

We've included our overdraft services and fees that are available for your personal checking account(s) at the end of this statement. As a reminder, overdraft services are not available for Chase Secure CheckingSM or Chase First CheckingSM. Standard Overdraft Practice and Chase Debit Card CoverageSM are not available for Chase High School CheckingSM.

If you have questions, please visit chase.com/overdraft or call us at the number on this statement. We accept operator relay calls.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS:

Call us at 1-866-564-2262 or write us at the address on the front of this statement immediately if you think your statement or receipt is incorrect or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt.
