Good afternoon Michelle,

We were wondering if another meeting with you tomorrow (Wednesday), anytime 1-2 or 3-4:30, for a duration of 15 to 30 minutes, is possible?

As we processed the information exchanged last week, some questions came up. We know for sure we will contact a lawyer very soon (most likely this week). Perhaps we should let the attorney orchestrate legal matters (RO and eviction) rather than to do so ourselves right away.

In particular with respect to RO's potentially to be filed on behalf of our father against his friend (Annalise) and his tenant (Ken), I am not sure if those actions will advance the conservatorship. So, your additional input about issues of guardianship could help us with some planning.

Best regards,
Mark
