

Subject: Re: Just spoke with Kim
From: Hanh Cao Yu <hanh.cao.yu@stanfordalumni.org>
Date: 5/12/2023, 4:17 PM
To: Mark Cao <mark.cao@gmail.com>

Thanks for the update.

On Fri, May 12, 2023, 3:57 PM Mark Cao <mark.cao@gmail.com> wrote:

Hi Hanh,

Kim called me just now. The highlights:

- * When Kim came by on Thursday, Annalise let her into the house. Dad seemingly sneaked out the side right at that moment! Annalise even noted that ("looks like he doesn't want to talk to you!").
- * True to form, Annalise presented herself as warm and friendly, in order to gain an ally. Kim had a favorable impression of her. And also, Kim doesn't want to be seen as taking sides, else Annalise might clam up, not allow her in the house in the future, etc.
- * Hence, Kim never talked to Dad! Kim didn't want any communication to get lost in the translation (Annalise!) so Kim left a fact sheet. This fact sheet is realistic, but spells out some of the worst things that can happen -- wherefrom, Dad's idea that he could lose the house.
- * I gave Kim a quick rundown of mine and your short convos with Dad. I also let her know we are actively strategizing to seek the durable POA.

Huy